

Welcome to Another Great Season with the Everett Chorale

Hello Everett!

I am tremendously excited to be the new Artistic Director and Conductor of the Everett Chorale and, in the role, a new member of the Everett community! The history, creative spirit, and proud identity of this city has already charmed me. To be helping to write the next chapter in one of the city's oldest arts organizations is a very great privilege and one that I have already taken to heart.

Through my first season with the Everett Chorale, I want to offer three very different musical experiences and ways to meet you: a wonder-inspired holiday concert, a theatrical romp for all ages, and a Concert for a Cause to support our community's work for the homeless and hungry.

I hope you'll come out to join us. Please introduce yourself and say hello!
